THEME: Faith in God also means faith in God's way – often a way we cannot understand. Jesus tells his disciples of his coming death – something they find hard to accept. Let us pray for a strong faith to find and follow God's way; such faith, as St. James explains, flows out of an impressive goodness and maturity.

Entrance Hymn: 241 v. 1 – 4

OPENING PRAYER: Let us pray that God will keep us faithful in his service. Almighty God, our creator and guide, may we serve you with all our heart and know your forgiveness in our lives.

LITURGY OF THE WORD OF GOD:

1st Reading: Isaiah 50 v. 5-9. When we are under attack by others, the great temptation is to become like them. If they are hurtful, we hurt back. Isaiah invites us to another way; to overcome evil by good, violence by love, war by peacemaking.

The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed. My vindicator is here at hand. Does anyone start proceedings against me? Then let us go to court together. Who thinks he has a case against me? Let him approach me. The Lord is coming to my help, who will dare to condemn me?

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: Psalm 114 ® I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

Alleluia! I love the Lord for he has heard the cry of my appeal; for he turned his ear to me in the day when I called him. ®

They surround me, the snares of death, with the anguish of the tomb; they caught me, sorrow and distress. I called on the Lord's name.

O Lord my God, deliver me. ®

How gracious is the Lord, and just; our God has compassion.

The Lord protects the simple hearts; I was helpless so he saved me.®

He has kept my soul from death. my eyes from tears and my feet from stumbling.
I will walk in the presence of the Lord In the land of the living. ®

2nd Reading: James 2 v. 14-18. The Word of God became flesh. Our words, our belief in God must also become flesh by becoming real in action. The lifeless character of our faith is exposed when it does not lead us to love everyone and to share with the needy.

The world does not listen to empty words but sees the deeds and begins to listen.

Take the case, my brothers, of someone who has never done a single good act but claims that he has faith. Will that faith save him? If one of the brothers or one of the sisters is in need of clothes and has not enough food to live on, and one of you says to them, 'I wish you well; keep yourself warm and eat plenty', without giving them these bare necessities of life, then what good is that? Faith is like that: if good works do not go with it, it is quite dead.

This is the way to talk to people of that kind: 'You say you have faith and I have good deeds; I will prove to you that I have faith by showing you my good deeds – now you prove to me that you have faith without any good deeds to show.'

Gospel Hymn: 241 v.5

All: Alleluia, Alleluia! I am the Way, the Truth and the Life, says the Lord; no one can come to the Father except through me. Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 8 v. 27-35. St. Peter does not want to face the reality of Jesus and recoils at the possibility of Jesus' suffering death.

Jesus and his disciples left for the villages round Caesarea Philippi. On the way he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say I am?' And they told him. 'John the Baptist,' they said 'others Elijah; others again, one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he asked 'who do you say I am?' Peter spoke up and said to him, 'You are the Christ.' And he gave them strict orders not to tell anyone about him.

And he began to teach them that the Son of Man was destined to suffer grievously, to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be put to death, and after three days to rise again; and he said all this quite openly. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. But, turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said to him, 'Get behind me, Satan! Because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

He called the people and his disciples to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.'

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL:

Celebrant: Let us celebrate the love of God by whom the Cross of Calvary is made the Tree of Life for us.

Reader: Let us pray for all who are hungry and cold in this world: that their plight might inspire us all to act to end injustice and poverty. We pray for Christian Aid, St Martin's Housing Trust at Norwich and Stowmarket Food Bank.

Let us pray that the message of St. James may stir our hearts to be generous and self-sacrificing to the hungry and destitute.

Let us pray for those who fear pain and suffering; that they may find rest for their minds and peace in their hearts as they place their trust in the Lord's power to save.

Let us pray for those in charge of those who are terminally ill; that they may see their rewarding work as the final preparation for eternal life for those whom the Lord has entrusted to their tender care.

Lord, help us to discover the way forward for our Church in this parish and to discover in ourselves the resources needed, the generosity to give them and strength and determination to fulfil our resolves.

Let us pray for the sick especially Anna Horsnell, Marcel and Marjorie Rousseau, Julie and Andrew Gray, Jan Ross, Ralph Lambert. May we see in our sick brothers and sisters the person of Christ himself and continue our ministry with renewed patience, compassion and skill.

Let us pray for the departed; for Muriel Downie; George Drayson; James Edwards; Charles Kitchen; Maxwell Owen-King; Tony Keeling; Olive Burch; George Davy; Herbert Nash, Claude Baully, Rosemary Double, Mabel Baker and Pip Pelham, whose anniversaries of death fall at this time.

Let us pray with Mary, who gave her Son food, drink and shelter. Hail Mary full of grace the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

S I L E N C E

All: Father, you so loved the world that you gave your only Son to save mankind. Make firm and strong our faith in him that by his stripes we may be healed and through his cross we may come to life. We make our prayer in the name of Jesus our Lord. Amen.
