GLORIA: Sanctus setting

OPENING PRAYER: Let us pray that the risen Christ will raise us up and renew our lives. God our Father, by raising Christ your Son you conquered the power of death and opened for us the way to eternal life. Let our celebration today raise us up and renew our lives by the spirit that is within us.

LITURGY OF THE WORD OF GOD

First Reading – Acts 10 v. 34, 37 – 43. We hear Peter preaching in the house of Cornelius and giving a summary of Jesus' life and death which opened for us the way to eternal life. Let our celebration today raise us up and renew our lives by the spirit that is within us.

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: 'You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil. Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses – we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead – and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

PSALM 117 ® This day was made by the Lord; we rejoice and are glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say: "His love has no end." ®

The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. ®

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. ®

Second Reading – Colossians 3 v. 1 – 4. Paul tells the church in Corinth that their new life in Christ should educate their minds and hearts so that they can live in faith until the day Christ is revealed in glory.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

Sequence - ALL

Christians to the Pascal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.

The sheep are ransomed by the lamb; and Christ the undefiled, Hath sinners to His Father reconciled.

Death with life contended: combat strangely ended!

Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.

Tell us Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way.

The tomb the Living did enclose; I saw Christ's glory as he rose! the angels there attesting: Shroud with grave-clothes resting. Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.

That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know. Victorious King, thy mercy show! Amen.

Gospel Hymn: 38 v. 5 & 6

Acclamation (all) Alleluia, alleluia! Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed; let us celebrate the feast then, in the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel - John 20 v. 1-9. On the first day of the week, the Christian day of worship, three disciples see the empty tomb of Jesus and conclude in faith that he is risen from the dead as the scriptures foretold.

When the sabbath was over, Mary of Magdala, Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices with which to go and anoint him. And very early in the morning on the first day of the week they went to the tomb, just as the sun was rising.

They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' But when they looked they could see that the stone – which was very big – had already been rolled back. On entering the tomb they saw a young man in a white robe seated on the right-hand side, and they were struck with amazement. But he said to them, 'There is no need for alarm. You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he has risen, he is not here. See, here is the place where they laid him. But you must go and tell his disciples and Peter, "He is going before you to Galilee; it is there you will see him, just as he told you."'

CREED (Nicene Creed)

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Celebrant: We look forward to our own resurrection and we pray to our Father for all the things we need as we wait for the second coming of his Son.

Reader: Let us pray for all joining us for our celebration today online. May they experience the power and presence of the risen Lord in this community.

Let us pray for those who are sick in mind and body. May they feel the healing strength of Christ uniting them in mind and body, for the glory of God and good of his people. We pray for Jan Ross, Lucy Muskett, Julie Gray, Jan Robinson, for our parishioners in care homes and all prayed for at Shrine prayers.

Let us pray for all those whose lives are overshadowed by the darkness of grief, loneliness, pain and despair, that Christ may bring them light – especially all those suffering because of the conflict in Ukraine.

We pray for all those who are involved in caring for the suffering in the world: for healthcare and relief workers and for all who support them with their generosity: may they be encouraged by the Holy Spirit,

Let us pray for those who have no faith in an after life: that the joy and hope of the great day may be dawn for them too. We pray for ourselves that we may be able to overcome our fear of death, since Christ underwent it and overcame it for us.

Let us pray for all those who have died. May they experience the life of Easter and the peace of dwelling forever in the presence of the Lord, especially Peggy Walker, Fr Brindley Morgan, Edwin Tillesley, Frederick Jupp, Joy Pink, Michael Martin, James Farmbrough, Ada Penton, Johnny Buckle, Fr David Woodwards, Patricia Studden, Madge Bird, Phyllis Falco, Dennis Neale, Francis Mapson, Kathleen Last, Henry Syrett, Fr Michael Smith and George Goodwin (Anniversaries)

Let us pray with Mary, who was filled with joy at her son being raised from the dead. Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen

S I L E N C E

All: Father, in the name of the risen Jesus, we ask you to bring the hope, healing and joy of the resurrection to all those people for whom we pray. Amen.
