Fr Philip: The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Penitential Rite

Fr Philip: My brothers and sisters, to prepare ourselves to celebrate the Sacred Mysteries, let us call to mind our sins:
Forgive us, Lord, when we do not listen to your voice in the scriptures, explaining to us the meaning of life and death. Lord have Mercy.

All Lord have mercy.

Fr Philip: Forgive us, Lord, when we do not discern your presence strengthening our wavering faith and calming our fears. Christ have mercy.

All Christ have mercy

Fr Philip: Forgive us, Lord, when we do not recognise your presence in the Breaking of the Bread, when we do not recognise that we are in Communion with the souls in paradise and the Saints in Heaven. Lord have mercy.

All Amen.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 102

® The Lord is compassion and love.

The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy. He does not treat us according to our sins nor repay us according to our faults. ®

As a father has compassion on his sons, the Lord has pity on those who fear him; for he knows of what we are made, he remembers that we are dust.®

As for man, his days are like grass; he flowers like the flower of the field; the wind blows and he is gone and his place never sees him again. ®

But the love of the Lord is everlasting upon those who hold him in fear; his justice reaches out to children's children when they keep his covenant in truth. ®

Second reading Revelation. 21 v. 1-7:

When the fullness of God's Kingdom will be revealed, there will be no more sadness or mourning or death.

Prayer of the Faithful

At the end of each petition:

Fr Philip: Lord hear us

All: Lord, graciously hear us.

Fr Philip: In this time of recalling tragedy and distress, it is most fitting that we call on our God who is full of love and compassion. Confidently, in the hope of the resurrection we pray:

Fr Philip: Let us pray for the Church in this country; that it may be true to its mission in spreading the Gospel of justice, love and peace.

Let us pray for a secure and lasting peace in our world.

Let us pray for all who bear scars from the violence and destruction of war, that they may find peace; especially all who have served their country and the peoples of Afghanistan, Ethiopia and Syria.

Let us pray for all who have died, especially those who died defending our country:

The Roll of Honour is read. A candle has been lit for each Mendlesham man who died in the First and Second World Wars & the Korean War and one for all who have died in more recent conflicts, and 288 candles for the Americans from the USAAF 34th Bombardment Group at the Mendlesham airfield who died.

2 MINUTES SILENCE will be observed.

At the end of the silence:

Fr Philip: Rest Eternal Grant them, O Lord
All And let light perpetual shine on them.

Fr Philip: We pray with Mary, Mother of the Risen Lord -
All Hail Mary full of grace, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

All God of mercy, send forth your Spirit of peace to our world as we ask you to grant our prayers for those who have fallen in war, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Offertory Hymn

O valiant hearts who to your glory came through dust of conflict and through battle flame;
tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
your memory hallowed in the land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank, to war
as who had heard God's message from afar;
all you had hoped for, all you had, you gave,
to save mankind - yourselves you scorned to save.

Fr Philip: Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this bread to offer, which earth has given and human hands have made. It will become for us the bread of life.

All            Blessed be God forever.

Fr Philip: Blessed are you, Lord, God of all creation. Through your goodness we have this wine to offer, fruit of the vine and work of human hands. It will become our spiritual drink.

All            Blessed be God forever.

Hymn        Splendid you passed, the great surrender made;
(cont'd)        into the light that nevermore shall fade;
                  deep your contentment in that blest abode,
                  who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.

Long years ago, as earth lay dark and still,
rose a loud cry upon a lonely hill,
while in the frailty of our human clay,
Christ, our Redeemer, passed the self-same way.

Still stands his Cross from that dread hour to this,
like some bright star above the dark abyss;
still, through the veil, the Victor's pitying eyes
look down to bless our lesser Calvaries.

These were his servants, in his steps they trod,
following through death the martyred Son of God:
Victor, he rose; victorious too shall rise
they who have drunk his cup of sacrifice.

O risen Lord, O Shepherd of our dead, whose cross has bought them and whose staff has led,
in glorious hope their proud and sorrowing land
commits her children to thy gracious hand

Fr Philip: Pray, my brothers and sisters, that our sacrifice may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All            May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands, for the praise and glory of his name, for our good, and the good of all his Church.

Fr Philip: Prayer over the gifts

All            (at the end) Amen.

Hymn as we go to the churchyard

O Ruler of the earth and sky be with our airmen when they fly;
and keep them in thy loving care
amid the perils of the air.
O let our cry come unto thee
for those who fly o'er land and sea

Strong Son of Man, save those who fly swift-winged across th'uncharted sky;
each anxious hour and lonely flight,
serene, unchallenged, day and night.
O'er land and ocean safely bear
all those in peril in the air.

O Holy Spirit, God's own power
give peace in sudden danger's hour:
bring calm of heart, and be thou near
to those who watch and those who fear.
To thee will rise the grateful prayer
of those who serve thee in the air.

O Trinity of love and grace,
true guide of all who fly through space,
in peace or war, mid friend or foe,
be with them whereso'er they go.
So shall our praise with heaven's blend and joyful hearts to thee ascend.

When we arrive at the memorial

Fr Philip: We have gathered together to worship Almighty God, whose purposes are good; whose power sustains the world He has made, who loves us though we constantly fail to love Him in return; who gave Jesus Christ for the life of the world; who by His Holy Spirit leads us in this way. As we give thanks for the deliverance granted to us in the Second World War, we remember all those who lived and died in the service of others. We pray for all those who still suffer through war, and we ask that those who gave their lives may not have done so in vain.

Laying of Wreaths by the US memorial

Fr Philip: Almighty and everlasting God, we give you humble thanks for the memory and good example of those who have laid down their lives in the cause of peace, especially those recorded in the Book of Remembrance in this church. Accept their sacrifice; let it not be in vain that they have died in the cause of peace and freedom and in your mercy send your peace into the hearts of all people through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All        Amen

Peace, Peace, Peace.

VETERANS' GATEWAY

The first point of contact for veterans seeking support

Today is a key opportunity to reflect and give thanks, but also to recognise those who have served and their family members who are living amongst us. Some may be present today. The Remembrance period can bring thoughts of service and sacrifice, the good times and also the more difficult times and we need to be mindful of supporting those people. The Veterans' Gateway is an online collaboration of services which can help members of the Veterans or Ex-Forces community to find the right support:
