Theme: We begin every Mass in the name of the Blessed Trinity: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Our destiny is to share in the very life of God which has been revealed through Jesus Christ. We are drawn into that life by the Holy Spirit who dwells within us. Today we praise and thank God for all he has done for us.

Entrance Hymn: 123 v. 1-3

PENITENTIAL RITE:

Celebrant: Forgive us, Lord, for our failures to see your active presence among us. Lord have mercy. People: (sing) Kyrie Eleison

Celebrant: Forgive us, Lord, for not recognising the inspiration of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Christ have mercy. People: Christe Eleison

Celebrant: Forgive us, Lord, for our ingratitude to the Father for the life he has given us. Lord have mercy. People: Kyrie Eleison

Celebrant proclaims God's forgiveness.

Gloria. Dom Gregory setting - yellow card

OPENING PRAYER: Let us pray to the one God, Father, Son and Spirit, that our lives may bear witness to our faith. Father, you sent your Word to bring us truth and your Spirit to make us holy. Through them we come to know the mystery of your life. Help us to worship you, one God in three persons, by proclaiming and living our faith in you.

Liturgy of The Word Of God

First Reading – Proverbs 8 v. 22-31 In poetic imagery of great beauty and power the author personifies God's wisdom as a living force in the creation of the world.

The Wisdom of God cries aloud:

The Lord created me when his purpose first unfolded, before the oldest of his works. From everlasting I was firmly set, from the beginning, before earth came into being. The deep was not, when I was born, there were no springs to gush with water. Before the mountains were settled, before the hills, I came to birth; before he made the earth, the countryside, or the first grains of the world's dust. When he fixed the heavens firm, I was there, when he drew a ring on the surface of the deep, when he thickened the clouds above, when he fixed fast the springs of the deep, when he assigned the sea its boundaries – and the waters will not invade the shore – when he laid down the foundations of the earth, I was by his side, a master craftsman, delighting him day after day, ever at play in his presence, at play everywhere in his world, delighting to be with the sons of men.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps8

Ⓜ How great is your name, O Lord our God, through all the earth!

When I see the heavens, the work of your hands,
the moon and the stars which you arranged,
what is man that you should keep him in mind,
mortal man that you care for him? Ⓜ

® How great is your name, O Lord our God, through all the earth!

Yet you have made him little less than a god; with glory and honour you crowned him, gave him power over the works of your hand, put all things under his feet. ®

All of them, sheep and cattle, yes, even the savage beasts, birds of the air, and fish that make their way through the waters. ®

Second Reading: Romans 5 v. 1-5 St. Paul gives us an insight into our relationship with the Blessed Trinity.

Through Jesus Christ the love of God is poured in Through our Lord Jesus Christ, by faith we are judged righteous and at peace with God, since it is by faith and through Jesus that we have entered this state of grace in which we can boast about looking forward to God's glory. But that is not all we can boast about; we can boast about our sufferings. These sufferings bring patience, as we know, and patience brings perseverance, and perseverance brings hope, and this hope is not deceptive, because the love of God has been poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given us. to our hearts by the Holy Spirit.

Gospel Hymn: 123 v. 4

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, the God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel: John 16 v. 12-15 In speaking of the Father and the Holy Spirit, Jesus reveals to us something of the inner life of God. The Holy Spirit will lead us into all truth.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'I still have many things to say to you but they would be too much for you now. But when the Spirit of truth comes he will lead you to the complete truth, since he will not be speaking as from himself but will say only what he has learnt; and he will tell you of the things to come. He will glorify me, since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine. Everything the Father has is mine; that is why I said: All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.'

Prayer of the Faithful

Celebrant: The readings remind us of the gracious action of God on our behalf and of the combined presence of the Lord in our world, through the presence of the Holy Spirit. We join in prayer that the Spirit will guide and direct the church throughout the world, a people made one in the unity of the Father, and the Son and of the Holy Spirit. May we lead lives worthy of our calling.

Reader: May Christ's Church on earth, guided by the word of God and inspired by his Spirit, be a beacon of light to the world.

Let us pray for all of us who have been baptised in the name of the Trinity: that we may remain faithful to our baptismal promises.

Let us pray for those working among the poor and hungry, especially Christian Aid, striving to develop local resources and thus improve the quality of life and health. We pray for the people of Ukraine.

Let us pray for the world: that Christ's love will inspire efforts to remedy injustice and promote peace among nations.

Let us pray for all who are suffering because of sickness. May the Holy Spirit, the Comforter, heal and strengthen them with his love – especially our parishioners in homes, our house Communicants Hazel Lockwood and Margaret Maundrell and all to be anointed at our healing service on Monday.

Let us pray for all those who have died, especially Barbara Pyett, Russell Pipe, Eddie Derrick, Henry Webb, Hugh Cutting, Alan Gooderham, Beatrice Stannard, Eileen Wren, Edith Pelham, Kenneth Gray, Peter Williamson, Peter Gowlett, Eva Baker, Cecily Garrard, Margaret Stannard, Katherine Fletcher, Jean Taylor, Jean Davey, Frederick Aldridge, Ernest Abbott, Fr John Drew and Joan Rogers, whose anniversaries fall at this time. May they rest in peace.

Let us ask Mary the Mother of God to pray for us. Hail Mary full of grace the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

S I L E N C E

ALL: Father, you sent your Son to redeem us, and the Holy Spirit to dwell within us. Draw us ever more deeply into the life you give us, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Offertory Hymn: 454 v. 1 & 2 Offertory Prayers p.9 Hymn v.3 & 4

Sanctus: Dom Gregory setting

Blessed and praised be Jesus Christ in the most Holy Sacrament. Hosanna! Hosanna! Hosanna in excelsis.

Recessional Hymn: 394 1&2

Prayer at Shrine of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Let us pray that the love of Christ's heart may touch the world with healing and peace.

ALL: Father, we honour the heart of your dear Son broken by man's cruelty, yet symbol of love's triumph, pledge of all that man is called to be. Teach us to see Christ in the lives we touch, to offer him living worship by love-filled service to our brothers and sisters. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

V. Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. R. Have mercy on us.
